The United States Air Force (USAF) is the aerial and space warfare service branch of the United States Armed Forces. It is one of the five branches of the United States Armed Forces, and one of the seven American uniformed services. Initially formed as a part of the United States Army on 1 August 1907, the USAF was established as a separate branch of the U.S. Armed Forces on 18 September 1947 ...AFOCD, 30 April 2018 1 This Guide established the occupation structure of the Air Force officer force and implements Air Force Policy Directive (AFPD) 36-21, Utilization and Classification of Air Force Military Personnel. The occupational structure is flexible to permit officer personnel to broadly specialize as necessary to meet the Air Force Specialty Code (AFSC) is an alphanumeric code used by the United States Air Force to identify a specific job. Officer AFSCs consist of four characters and enlisted AFSCs consist of five characters. A letter prefix or suffix may be used with an AFSC when more specific identification of position requirements and individual qualifications is necessary.
