

Download Farm A Year In The Life Of An American Farmer

We called our project "Life on the Land: An American Farm Family," and we chose the Benson family of Bigelow, in southwestern Minnesota. Theirs is a farm in transition, passing from the hands of one generation to another, with yet a third generation learning the skills of its elders. Matt and Kelley Griggs are partners in Griggs Farm, Humboldt, Tenn. The farm is featured on a History Channel documentary, The American Farm. Shot on location across the country, "The American Farm" is an authentic portrait of the fight to go from seed to stalk, and from farm to fork. The HISTORY series presents an up-close look at ...A Message from Chris Soules. Through my experience on The Bachelor, I had the chance to travel, grow and strengthen myself, but I also learned how others outside of the Midwest view the American farmer.
