

Download High School Freshman Orientation Activities

One of the most basic activities that go on at most freshman orientations is a tour of the high school. Since a freshman class may contain a hundred students or more, tours should be conducted in smaller, more manageable groups. High School Freshman Orientation Activities The transition from middle school to high school can be a daunting process for many high school freshmen. With new classes, new students and a much different academic world than freshman may be used to, it's easy for them to feel lost and confused. Icebreaker Activities for a High School Freshman Orientation. For 14- and 15-year-old incoming freshman, the icebreakers should be engaging and entertaining, without being overly physical or so silly that teens will dismiss them as completely juvenile. Freshman Orientation: A Year of Gentle Transition. The Freshman Orientation seminar is a year-long class for all ninth grade students. They meet with the guidance counselor in small groups once a week. This year-long program is unique as an ongoing opportunity to help students transition from middle school to high school,...
