I endeavour to offer for sale machinery and accessories that are in my considered 'opinion' very good to excellent condition or good value for money considering their age, plus hopefully, some interesting/unusual items. Thread Cutting - Internal and External on a Myford ML10 Lathe: This Instructable shows my first effort at thread cutting. It seemed to be reasonably successful and I didn't want to forget what I did, so having a long-term record should be useful for me. I don't expect to do too much thread cutting in the futu...
